Wildwood Public Schools

August 13, 2020

Dear Families:

Yesterday, Cape May County District Superintendents met to discuss recent changes in the available options for the 2020-2021 school year for the reopening of schools in the Fall.

Over the next few days, administration will process and analyze all new and additional guidance and recommendations that will be released by the Governor and NJDOE in the near future.

After critical review and consultations with the CMCDOH and NJDOE, CMC Districts will reconvene and coordinate efforts to make the best decisions for the students and staff of Cape May County.

The district Restart Plan is currently under review by the Cape May County Department of Education, and can be found on the district webpage (wvschools.org).

At this time, we believe that our district is prepared to open using the “Restart Plan” that was created in consultation with our school community. If conditions change between now and the first day of school, (September 8th, 2020,) we will make any required modifications to protect the health and safety of our students and staff.

Stay Well,

J. Kenyon Kummings
